

Yankees Lose Close Game to the White Sox Dodgers Win Twice Giants Bow to Reds

Pinch Hit by Chicago Recruit Offsets 46th Homer of Ruth

Fred Bratchi Bats for "Red" Faber in the Eighth Inning and Drives in Two Runs; Errors by New York Infielders Beat Mays by 7 to 6

By Charles A. Taylor

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—The White Sox evened up the series with the Yankees here today, after a see-saw battle. The score was 7 to 6, the Gleasonites staging an eighth-inning rally which gave them three runs and victory.

Babe Ruth did his share to keep the Yankee ship sailing smoothly onward, but his best endeavors were in vain. When the Yankees one run behind in the seventh, Babe knocked out his forty-sixth homer of the season and his second in two days, scoring two runners ahead of him.

Showing that he is absolutely impartial as to where he catches in his circuit drives, the ball he "lost" to day sailed over the left field fence, to the right of the home plate, and the Chicago rooters raised a frightful din. So obstinate was little Schalk that Umpire Wilson finally ordered the Sox backstop out of the game and then called his wife on Gleason. Eventually the battle was resumed.

A sudden weakening on the part of the "underhanded" Mays in the eighth spoiled everything for the Yankees. Amos Strunk started the collapse of the New York pitcher by doubling to left center. Fink walked and Sheely beat out a line to Mays, who turned to throw to third and force Strunk, but there was no Baker on hand to take the toss. This bungle filled every haseck.

Hooper forced Sheely at second. Strunk tallied, Mostil batted for Lee and was purposely passed, again filling the bases. A certain Fred Bratchi was hereupon called upon to bat for Faber and he made himself more than solid with the Comiskey customers by singling to right, scoring Fink and Hooper, and as it turned out, winning the old ball game.

Each team scored in the first inning. The Yankee run being put on its way by Elmer Miller, who singled over second. Roger Peckinpach responded to the Sox and ran a double, driving through short, Miller speeding to third. The best Ruth could accomplish was a grounder to short, which forced Peck at second, but Miller failed on the play.

Take Lead in Fourth

The White Sox got this run back in their half, and then Mays pitched for a double to right field. Mulligan in endeavoring to sacrifice popped a fly into the hands of Mays and Eddie Collins directed to Ruth. Amos Strunk singled to center for the run.

The Yankees shot into the lead in the fourth. Baker was tossed out by Johnson, but Meusel beat out a hit to deep short. Ward walked and Wally Schang hit his second homer of the afternoon, the ball bounding to left field after striking Mulligan on the left foot. Meusel and Ward counted on this terrific rally.

The Sox came right back in their half and with the aid of Ward and Pipp tied the score. Sheely went out, Mays to Pipp. Hooper singled off the hands of the New York pitcher, Schalk singled to center, putting Hooper on third. Faber singled to left, scoring Hooper, and Schalk also tallied when, with Faber on base, Hooper sacrificed. Sheely doubled, Miller and Pipp. Left on base—New York 5, Chicago 3.

Mitchell and Cadore Triumph In Easy Pair With Cardinals

Griffith, Batting for Miller, Drives In Winning Runs in First Contest

The Dodgers played a fine brand of baseball at Ebbets Field yesterday and took both ends of a double-header from the St. Louis Cardinals. The scores were 11 to 5 and 4 to 1. Robbie's men did some timely hitting, they had good pitching and their only error was a muffed by Schmandt of a twisting foul fly.

Clarence Mitchell was hit rather hard in the first game, but his mates helped immensely by walling the opposing pitchers. Bill Pertica started the rally which sent Pertica to the showers and Tommy Griffith, limping to the plate as a pinch hitter, sent Leon Cadore was effective in the second contest, St. Louis scoring its solitary run in the first inning.

"Cad" allowed only seven hits, three of which went for runs. The champion batter collected two triples and a single, but struck out on his last trip to the plate.

Battle After First Inning

The second game resolved itself into a pitcher's battle after the first inning, but as the Dodgers had scored four runs off Roy Walker in this frame Jess Haines' good pitching went for nothing. Zach Wheat put a spicy finish to the battle by making a fine one and two out, five Cards singled in succession, getting their final three runs.

All the scoring in the night-cap was confined to the first inning. Mueller singled off Cadore with one out and Hornsby tripled for the Cards' only run.

Olsen opened Brooklyn's half with an infield single and Johnston tripled to left center, scoring the shortstop. Jimmy Halliday on Wheat's infield out. Myers singled and went to third on Schmandt's single. Schmandt then

Cuban Pitcher Checks Local Rally in Ninth

Luque Tightens in Pinch and Wins by 4 to 3; Douglas Loses Own Game

By R. J. Kelly

The fast fading pennant aspirations of the Giants received another jolt yesterday afternoon, when the local club was beaten by the Reds, 4 to 3, in the second game of the series at the Polo Grounds and the pace-setting Pirates gained two victories over the hopheads. McGraw's Dodgers are now six and a half games behind the league leaders and only two and a half games ahead of the Braves, who are in third place.

Senior Adio Luque, who pitched for Cincinnati, held the Giants well in check until the ninth, when they staged a belated rally, which was cut short by the Reds' pitcher. The diminutive Cuban allowed only seven hits, three of which were bunched in the final inning. Luque did not issue a base on balls and was effective in the pinches.

Shufflin' Phil Douglas, who opposed Luque, was plastered for nine safeties, and most of these were put to advantage by the Reds. Douglas helped to bring about his own downfall by some slick fielding. He was taken out in the eighth to allow Brown to strike out for him and Slim Sallee turned the visitors back in order in the ninth.

Umpiring Draws Criticism

The game was marked by atrocious umpiring on the part of Big Bill Brennan, who officiated on the bases. The abriter made three poor decisions. The first ruling came in the fourth inning, when he called Roush out on second on a force play after Rawlings had plainly muffed a throw by Frisch.

The ruling did not affect the outcome in the least, as shortly after Frisch made a marvelous diving catch of Duncan's line drive and doubled. Douglas was a trifle unsteady in the second inning and the Reds showed a run across. Roush led off with a single to right. Daubert rolled one down to Rawlings, who tossed the ball to Brennan at second. It looked as though Roush was out by a step, but Brennan ruled otherwise. Roush then moved to third on Duncan's sacrifice and scored.

Giants Tie in Fifth

The Giants tied the count in the fifth on Neale's triple and a sacrifice fly by Rawlings, but the Reds went out in front again in the sixth, scoring a run on Baker's two-bagger. Grob's punt and Roush's fly to McClellan. Roush was out by a step, but Brennan ruled otherwise. Roush then moved to third on Duncan's sacrifice and scored.

Philadelphia Players Score Six Runs in First Four Innings and Win, 6 to 4

CLEVELAND, Aug. 18.—The Athletics hit Sothoron hard in the first three innings of today's game with the Indians and scored six runs in four innings. The champions were beaten, 6 to 4. Uhle replaced Sothoron in the third and pitched effectively for the remainder of the game.

Red Sox Score Double Triumph Over Tigers

DETROIT, Aug. 18.—The Red Sox won both ends of the double-header from the Tigers here today, 6 to 5 and 5 to 0. The first contest went eleven innings, Kerr's double and Pittinger's single bringing the winning run. Timely hitting and Detroit misplays won the second game.

John Hurl Senators To Victory Over Browns

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—The Senators pounded the ball to all corners of the lot, hitting three St. Louis pitchers alike, today, and easily took the second game of the series, 13 to 1. Walter Johnson was invincible. Jacobson's heroics were the Browns' lone tally.
